

Help us Celebrate our 20th Year! 20 Ways to Help The Garden...20 Ways to Support a Grieving Child

1 Make a memorial donation to The Garden in memory of a loved one

2 Follow us on Facebook

3 Want to keep up with what we are doing? Share your email to receive our monthly newsletter in your inbox

4 Sponsor an ad for The Garden in the local newspaper, radio etc. and help others learn about The Garden

5 Spread the word...Tell others of our work with grieving youth and their families

6 Attend our annual Garden Party in June

7 Give literary support... make a gift to our library for youth and adults

8 Enrich your life by becoming one of our volunteer facilitators

9 Share your warmth — knit a blanket/scarf/mittens for a participant

Help us celebrate life...bring a birthday treat to a program participant

10 Give a book to a grieving child (e.g. The Dead Bird by Margaret Wise Brown), and help give them language to talk about death

11

Donate gift cards to help us buy supplies from local vendors: Guild Art Supply, A2Z, Acme, etc.

12

Enlist our expertise...we offer trainings about the needs of grieving children

13

14

Share your knowledge & skills...Join our Advisory Board

15

Set up a monthly donation @ www.vnaandhospice.org/give

16 Host a friend raiser

17

Help us plan our Fall 5K

18

Start a supply-drive at your place of business

19 List The Garden as your choice for your charitable giving

20

Become a Garden Ambassador by adopting a participant family