Gift of Caring
A meaningful way to say Thank You

Every day at Cooley Dickinson Hospital, people experience caregiving that fills them with gratitude. Maybe a nurse's sense of humor made you laugh when you wanted to cry. Perhaps a doctor showed heartfelt concern not just to your husband, but to your entire family. Or maybe another care provider showed gentleness when handling your ailing family member.

A way to express your gratitude. If there's someone at Cooley Dickinson whom you'd especially like to thank, there's a way to publicly honor this person while also supporting the hospital.

When you make a Gift of Caring, a captioned photograph of your honoree will be displayed in the North Building lobby at the hospital. Your Gift of Caring supports everything from the hospital's programs and services to the latest medical technologies.

To make your gift, complete the attached form or call the Cooley Dickinson Development Office at (413) 582-2255.

“Heather exemplified the art and science of nursing with compassion and loving care. She is in the right profession.”
